

VIRTUAL MUSEUM SCAVENGER HUNT

National Women's History Museum, Alexandria, Virginia

American Women in Innovation and Invention

Learn about women inventors from American history with this guided tour and scavenger hunt of the Inventive Women.

Part One: <https://youtu.be/36aT3U93vi8>

1. How many patents did women receive during the Golden Age of Invention?
2. What was Sybilla Masters' patent for?
3. What year was Mary Kies' patent for hats issued?
4. How many copies of "Women Inventors to Whom Patents Have Been Granted" did they publish due to Charlotte Smith's efforts to highlight female inventors?
5. What ancient structure was the Patent Office modeled after?
6. Who was the first female patent examiner at the United States Patent Office?

Part Two: <https://youtu.be/F9dgNc1WGhU>

1. How many patents did Harriet Tracy have to her name?
2. Between 1865 and 1900, how many women patented inventions related to the railroad?
3. Name an invention for the railroad industry that was made by a female inventor.
4. Who invented the machine that folds and glues the bottoms of grocery store bags that we still use today?
5. Who patented the common sewing paper patterns that we still use today?
6. What household machine that we still use today did Josephine Cochrane invent?

Want to learn more about women in history, including how Juliette Gordon Low started Girl Scouts?

Check out all of the online exhibits and articles available at <https://www.womenshistory.org/>

